

1. North: David Thompson
south: Lewis and Clark
East: David Thompson
west: both

2. Washington D.C. then the states of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and Pennsylvania; then proceeds through Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri, Montana. Iowa, south and North Dakota.

3. Mr. David traveled through Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and Columbia. Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, North Dakota, and Missouri.

4. The similarities are that both David Thompson and Lewis and Clark's expedition was to find good fur and gold; David traveled more mapping 2,000,000 acres. Thomson lived in the area. Lewis and Clark were just coming through the area.